

WALK AWAY RENEE

The Left Banke (1966) Written by Michael Brown, Bob Calilli, & Tony Sansone

Intro: /F↓ Am↓ Dm↓/ C / /

[C] And when I [G] see the sign [Bb] that points one [Dm] way
 [Fm] The lot we [C] used to pass by [F] every [D] day

[C] Just walk a[Am]way Renee
 You [F] won't see me follow [C] you back [G] home
 [C] The empty [Am] sidewalks on my [F] block are not the [C] sa[G]me
 [F] You're not to [C] blame

[C] From deep in[G]side the tears [Bb] I'm forced to [Dm] cry
 [Fm] From deep in[C]side the pain that [F] I chose to [D] hide

[C] Just walk a[Am]way Renee
 You [F] won't see me follow [C] you back [G] home
 [C] Now as the [Am] rain beats down up[F]on my weary [C]ey[G]es
 [F] For me it [C] cries

[C] Just walk a[Am]way Renee
 You [F] won't see me follow [C] you back [G] home
 [C] Now as the [Am] rain beats down up[F]on my weary [C]ey[G]es
 [F] For me it [C] cries

[C] Your name and [G] mine inside a [Bb] heart upon a [Dm] wall
 [Fm] Still find a [C] way to haunt me [F] though they're so [D] small

[C] Just walk a[Am]way Renee
 You [F] won't see me follow [C] you back [G] home
 [C] The empty [Am] sidewalks on my [F] block are not the [C] sa[G]me
 [F] You're not to [C] blame
