

After the war is over ...

ANZAC Eve Reflection, an event for peace.

Thursday 24th April 7pm – 9pm, followed by a light supper.

Brunswick Secondary College Auditorium,
Crn Fallon & Dawson Street, Brunswick, Victoria 3056.

Free entry, tickets required. Tickets available from MAPW or BSC.

Donations welcome.

Speakers: Kevin Foster, Associate Professor, School of Media, Film and Journalism at Monash University. Topic: How the media has shaped what we know about the war in Afghanistan. Dr Nouria Salehi, OAM, executive director of the Afghan Australian Development Organisation. Topic: A civilian view of Afghanistan during and after the war.

Peter Wigg, psychiatrist. Topic: Why the Arms Trade Treaty matters.

Brunswick Secondary College Students will also present readings.

Music: The Asylum Seeker Resource Centre Choir, Bruce Watson and BSC musicians.

Tickets available from:

MAPW Contact: To book please email: vicsec@mapw.org.au or call 9023 1958

BSC Contact: to book please email: pearson.pauline.c@edumail.vic.gov.au

This event has been organised by The Medical Association for Prevention of War and Brunswick Secondary College.