

BRIAN BORU'S MARCH

Traditional Irish

First published 1842

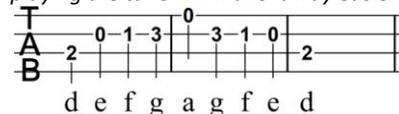

Brian Boru (c941 – 1014) was a High King of Ireland who founded the O'Brien dynasty.

Suggested strumming pattern:

1	&	2	&	3	&	1	&	2	&	3	&
↓			↑	↓		↓			↑	↓

Partial Dm scale: Practising this before playing the tune will make it way easier!

Four systems of guitar tablature for Brian Boru's March. Each system shows the strings (T, A, B) and fret numbers. Chord changes are indicated by 'Dm' and 'C' above the staff. The first system is in 3/4 time. The second system ends with a double bar line. The third system is in 3/4 time. The fourth system ends with a double bar line.

□ = 'pull-off'

Campanella style

Four systems of guitar tablature for Brian Boru's March in Campanella style. Each system shows the strings (T, A, B) and fret numbers. Chord changes are indicated by 'Dm' and 'C' above the staff. The first system is in 3/4 time. The second system ends with a double bar line. The third system is in 3/4 time. The fourth system ends with a double bar line.

Arranged by Bruce Watson
For educational use only
Not for Sale